Career

Associate at Johnson Winter & Slattery (Sydney, Australia)

Current Position

I have been practicing in commercial dispute resolution at the Sydney office of Johnson Winter & Slattery for the past four years. I have experience dealing with a wide range of disputes, in both domestic and international jurisdictions, covering issues including corporations law, insolvency, financial services, resources and mining, corporate fraud and white collar crime, construction and real property, competition and antitrust litigation, and contentious regulatory investigations. I also advise on and act in international commercial arbitration and investor-state arbitration matters.
