

Surname, First name	ZHOU, YI
Address	31/F Huaneng Union Tower, 958 Lujiazui Ring Road, Shanghai 200120, P. R. China
Telephone	86-21-5879 6866
Fax	86-21-5887 1810
E-mail	davidzhou@co-effort.com
Nationality, Date of Birth	Chinese, Feb. 26, 1972

Education

B. Eng. Shanghai Maritime University (1994)
LL. M. Shanghai Maritime University (1999)

Career

1994-1997 Chinese-Polish Joint Stock Shipping Company (CHIPOLBROK) – Marine officer
1997-2000 Duan & Duan Law Firm – Associate
2000-2003 Tianyuan Law Firm Shanghai office – Associate
2003-2012 H & Y Law Firm – Partner
2012 - Co-effort Law Firm LLP (The merged firm of H & Y and Co-effort) – Senior Partner

Current Position

Co-effort Law Firm LLP – Senior Partner
Shanghai University of International Business and Economics (SUIBE) – Guest Professor

Professional Memberships

The Bar Association of the P.R. China
The Association of Maritime Lawyers of China
London Maritime Arbitrators Association

Specialisations

Maritime, Transportation, International Trade and Foreign Investment

Arbitration Experience

Specialized in dispute resolution since 1997, particularly on maritime (both “wet” and “dry”), transportation, international trade and foreign investment, acting as arbitrator, counsel and law expert witness in numerous arbitration cases at the CIETAC, SHIAC, SAC, HKIAC, SIAC and LMAA in China, Hong Kong, Singapore and London.

Publications

Dispute Resolution in China – Litigation & Arbitration
The Legal Landscape for Chinese Trade
Recent Developments in Maritime Law in China
Recovery and Risk in Emerging Markets – Remedies for Defaults in China
A Practical Guide to Arresting a Ship – China
Contract & Legal Issues with FLNG Projects
Protecting Your Intellectual Property Rights in China
Insurer's Vision: Subrogation and Recovery in China
Corporate Governance & Going Public – From Legal Perspective
Manage Your Business Portfolio in China
Legal Compliance of Industry & Protecting Your Technical Information
Legal Remedies for Breach of Newbuilding Contract in China
Ship Arrest in China: A Practical Perspective
A Cake or A Trap – Issues when Doing Business with China

Languages

Chinese and English